

Is there more to the LEWIS AND CLARK EXPEDITION than you learned in school?

YES! LOTS MORE!

A new public reading group started on Monday, November 10, 2025.
We are reading through the journals of the Captains and enlisted soldiers as they recount their day-to-day experiences on the 1804-1806 epic quest

to cross the North American continent and return.

No registration required: All are welcome to attend.

Where: Meeting Room
Lied Pierce Public Library

When: First and Third Mondays 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Materials: *The Definitive Journals of Lewis and Clark
From the Ohio to the Vermillion*
Volume 2 of the Nebraska Edition
Gary E. Moulton, Editor

(Book also available free online: <https://lewisandclarkjournals.unl.edu/journals>)